

Hi there. We saw that you were on your way to register and something must have happened, maybe you got distracted. If so, we'd love to have you come on back. If you were on the fence and you changed your mind, then I'm talking to you. Here's what's going on. I know the scariest thing is to get started, and what happens is, especially with betrayal, our confidence was shattered, and we hardly trust ourselves, because we're thinking, "I'm a bright person, how did I not know? How did I not see?"

It could very likely be that you don't trust yourself, and you say, "Well, I don't want to fail. What if this doesn't work for me?" Or any number of things we can convince ourselves of, but you know what I do know? I know that you deserve to heal. I know that just because something happened to you, it's not about you, even though your confidence was shattered, even though your heart is broken in a million pieces, and I know because I get it, I've been there.

I also know that there's a version of you so strong, so healed, so healthy, that's waiting to be unleashed, but it's under a few layers of fear, and doubt, and insecurity, and that's not fair to you. If you're thinking about getting unstuck, if you're eager, you're wondering, just give it a try just for a month, if you don't like it, stop.

Here's what's waiting for you inside. First of all, nothing like this exists, and this is in response to the Ph.D. study I did on betrayal. The hundreds of people who have been through the programs that I have, and the over 7,000 people who've taken the Post Betrayal Syndrome quiz-every single comment said has all been taken into account.

This membership community has been created in response that. First of all, there's support 24/7, and the study proved that everybody, especially when we're healing from betrayal, we desperately need support but you know what? There's so much shame, so much fear, so much embarrassment that we struggle and we suffer in silence. Here's where we need support the most, and here's where we're the least likely to seek that support.

If you do seek that support, and it's from people who don't get it, don't understand or have their own vested interest in saying whatever they're saying, not only does it not help, it does more harm than good. We have the right support waiting for you with certified coaches and practitioners, along with a private forum and communities. Not even just communities, but forums with specific topics, like in health and fitness. There's so much going on there.

We even have clubs. Clubs like a book club, and we have an entrepreneur club, and divorce club, and a club just for men, so that men don't feel like they have their own place and space to heal. So many clubs, and forums, and places to get that specific support. Because it's not just healing, you're going to be transforming, and you're going to be looking for those next steps and it's all there for you.

We also have programs. All of my programs are in there for you to access 24/7, as often as you want. Then we have Certified PBT Coaches and Practitioners who are certified in helping people heal from betrayal, and then not just that, they also have their own specialties and you get access to them. You get your own session with them every month. Let's say you want to meet with somebody who specializes in how do you heal while you're raising a family?

Maybe you want to work with someone who specializes in dealing with a narcissist. Maybe you want to work with somebody who specializes in emotional intelligence or nutrition, or nutrigenomics or functional eating. We have so many different amazing Coaches and Practitioners with incredible specialties. Not only they're all trained in the model on moving you through the stages of betrayal healing, they're bringing their unique greatness to this.

We have curated experts coming in to teach one-time masterclasses in the most incredible topics you can imagine, and I happen to have access to brilliant, brilliant thought leaders, they're all coming in. I'm there to teach you all the time as well. We even have this beautiful welcoming process where you take a little quiz, and based on your responses, we're able to customize your experience, so we know the Coaches or Practitioners, the classes and programs to suggest to you.

We find out if you want to buddy up with someone, so you don't have that new awkward feeling and you're with someone through the process. This is all customized for you.

So, here's what I would suggest. If you don't want to invest in a year, that's fine. Give it a try for a month, get the support you need. It's the same you'd pay for one session of therapy or something, with someone who isn't highly skilled in this, that has you feeling even worse. How many books would you buy, and things would you read, and programs you would invest in? Everything is all in this one community for you.

Check it out, scroll down, click the button, join us. Nothing like this has ever existed. There has never been one place to heal physically, mentally, emotionally, psychologically, spiritually from betrayal, and then not only you heal, then from there, you're transforming, and then the next steps are waiting for you. Whether you want to start a new business, or you're ready for a new relationship. Your new you is going to reveal so many things, and then we have the next steps for you then too.

If you're on the fence, this message is for you. If you got distracted, this message is for you. We're here for you. We want you to heal. We know what healing looks like, that's what goes on in the community every single day, and you deserve it. You deserve to not stay sick, and sad, and stuck, and thinking, "This is the best it gets." It's not. The best version of you is waiting, is available, just needs to go through a little bit of healing, and we know exactly how to help you do that, so let's see on the inside. Remember, scroll down, click the button, whatever is below this video, and let's get you in there. I'll talk to you soon, bye-bye.
